Oakville Pupils View Paintings

School was out for Oakville pupils Monday, and the reason? A trip by bus to Appomattox to see the Ford Times painting exhibit at the Appomattox County Library. Mrs. Vi Harwood, librarian, and Mrs. Margaret Janatka conducted the children on a tour of the library and the paintings. The children, shown above, saw the work of four American artists, portraying scenes and events of North American. With them were their principal Earl T. Pickett and teachers, Miss Elizabeth Haskins. Mrs. Katherine Alvis and Mrs. Bessie O'Brien.

New Homemakers Organize Chapter At Carver-Price

On behalf of the Chapter of Carver - Price High School, we extend greetings to fellow N.H.A. Chapters throughout the State of Virginia.

The first meeting of the season was held on October 9, 1963 for the main purpose of organizing our chapter. Our officers for the year of 1963-64 are Phinnize Johnson, president; Mozelle Ferguson, vice - president; Georgia Walker, secretary; Verta Lewis, assistant secretary; Doris Meggerson, treasurer; Elaine Ward and Rowena Ferguson, chaplains; Viola Johnson, Eva Lamberth, and Viola Chambers, reporters, and Martha Humbles, parliamentarian.

All of the girls who met seen to be very interested in the club and are eager to promote the work of the organization.

Phinnize Johnson, Georgia Walker, Dorothy Croner, and Mozelle Ferguson along with their advisor, Mrs. V. P. Elliott, attended the Myra Jane Thompson District Meeting held at Lunenburg Elementary School in Victoria, on October 19, 1963. Two of our chapter members are District offiers. Mozelle Ferguson, vice- president and Dorothy Croner, Song leader

We are now in the process of preparing for our assembly proprram which will be held in the near future.

We look forward to a year filled with many interesting and challenging opportunities that will enable us to make a favorable contribution to home and family living in our community.

The N.H.A. Chapter of the Carver - Price High School hopes for each of its sister chapters a successful year.

Game Warden Finds Answer

Game warden Charles Torrence viewed a strange "catch" from fisherman Mason Banton over the week end, and said he had never seen anything like it. It didn't take him long to name the "thing" however, and Torrence came to the TIMES office Monday with an encyclopedia and the answer (same as biologist Bruce Krogg's) that the creature is a "Nocturus" — a "mud puppy." The "puppy" is reported doing well in the high school aquarium.

Rules Clinic Held Wednesday

CHARLOTTESVILLE — A Basketball Rules Clinic, conducted by Mr. Earl S. Gillespie, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Virginia High School League, was held at E. C. Glass High School, Lynchburg on Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m.

The year's clinic included a discussion on the rule changes for the 1963-64 season (clock stopped on all violations; officials handling the ball for all throw-ins; etc.) points of special emphasis (charged time- outs, post play, etc.); a question and answer session and a film on basketball rule interpretations. Officials desiring up-grading for the 1964-65 season attended the clinic.

Eighth Grade Ends Season With 7-6 Win

Johnny Giles threw the touch down pass that brought a second victory to eighth grade football players of Appomattox High. Harry Williams was the receiver, and a successful conversion made it 7-6 over Buckingham for AHS on Wednesday, Nov. 6. Coach Bruce Krogg says his boys have picked up a lot of experience, and that he is well pleased with the season's results.
